RANDOLPH

GREENGATE DIVISION HEAD

START DATE: JULY 1, 2027

GREENGATE SCHOOL
AT RANDOLPH

Randolph & Greengate

Randolph is a coeducational, college preparatory day school that enrolls about 1,060 students in prekindergarten through twelfth grade. Twice named a National School of Excellence by the U.S. Department of Education, Randolph is the only independent college prep school in North Alabama. Huntsville is a thriving, but manageable, metropolitan area routinely celebrated for its quality of life and openness to progress and innovation. The School is housed on 72 acres on two campuses and employs over 200 faculty and staff.

Greengate School at Randolph serves students in grades 1-6 using an Orton-Gillingham approach to provide a specialized program of instruction that meets individual learning needs, while also offering students with dyslexia a full complement of co-curricular and extra-curricular school experiences. Greengate, one of 18 instructional programs in the nation accredited by the Orton-Gillingham Academy and the only such school in Alabama, has educated children with dyslexia and related language-learning differences since 2002.

Our Future

The School has acquired an additional 26 acres of contiguous, buildable land, expanding our beautiful 51-acre Garth Road campus. This strategic move aligns with Randolph's mission to provide a rigorous and well-rounded college preparatory education within a nurturing community. The additional land presents the opportunity to reunite our two campuses, creating a unified, cohesive environment that enhances the sense of community and belonging among students, faculty, parents, grandparents, alumni, and the greater Huntsville community.

Since its founding, Randolph School has cherished the vision of a unified campus, a place where every student, from Pre-Kindergarten through Grade 12, can grow and learn together. We recently celebrated the opening of our new Leo Center for Excellence, a space for gathering, an expanded weight room, alumni hall, and an additional gymnasium. We have begun construction in phase one of a brand new Lower School building relocated on our Garth campus.

Position Summary

Randolph School seeks a dynamic, student-centered Head of Greengate to begin July 1, 2027 and join an outstanding leadership team united by the School's mission of seeking truth, building character, and nurturing all. This is an extraordinary moment to join Randolph; we are in an energizing period of intentional growth in the Lower School, a sharp focus on instructional best practices, and transformative new construction underway.

The next Head of Greengate will partner with an accomplished faculty and a dedicated parent community. The successful candidate will model inclusive and ambitious educational leadership in the Greengate division while working closely with an engaged PK-12 academic leadership team. Additionally, this leader will play a pivotal role as Randolph Lower School moves into new state-of-the-art buildings thoughtfully designed to bring our program foundations to life and inspire our newest generation of Greengate and Randolph alumni.
